NEW HERE?

Welcome to Saint Ignatius. We're glad you're here and would love to meet you. Please join us for coffee hour following Divine Liturgy.

HOLY COMMUNION

The mystery of Holy Communion is given only to those baptized and Chrismated into the Orthodox Faith. After the dismissal, everyone is welcome to come forward to receive a blessing, venerate the cross and have the antidoron (blessed bread).

At the end of the Divine Liturgy, we offer Prayers of Thanksgiving for receiving the Body and Blood of Christ. These prayers help us reflect on the mystery we have just received and prepares us for our transition back into the "world."

Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost & Third Sunday of Luke

Thomas the Apostle Called "The Twin" Innocent, Apostle to the Americas; Venerable Kendeas of Cyprus; Venerable-martyr Makarios of St. Anne Skete on Athos

RESURRECTIONAL APOLYTIKION IN TONE SEVEN

Thou didst shatter death by Thy Cross, Thou didst open paradise to the thief; Thou didst turn the sadness of the ointment-bearing women into joy. And didst bid Thine Apostles proclaim a warning, that Thou hast risen O Christ, granting to the world the Great Mercy.

APOLYTIKION OF ST. THOMAS IN TONE THREE

O holy Apostle Thomas, intercede with our merciful God to grant our souls forgiveness of sins.

APOLYTIKION OF SAINT IGNATIUS IN TONE FOUR

By choosing the Apostles' way of life, you succeeded to their throne. Inspired by God you found the way to divine contemplation through the practice of virtue. After teaching the Word of Truth without error, you defended the Faith to the very shedding of your blood.

O, Holy Martyr among bishops, Ignatius. Entreat the Lord our God to save our souls.

ORDINARY KONTAKION IN TONE TWO

O protection of Christians that cannot be put to shame, mediation unto the Creator most constant, O despise not the suppliant voices of those who have sinned; but be thou quick, O good one, to come unto our aid, who in faith cry unto thee: Hasten to intercession, and speed thou to make supplication, thou who dost ever protect,

O Theotokos, them that honor thee.

THE EPISTLE

(For the Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost)

The Lord will give strength to His people.

Ascribe to the Lord, O sons of God, ascribe to the Lord honor and glory.

The Reading from the Second Epistle of St. Paul to the Corinthians. (6:1-10)

Brethren, working together with Him, then, we entreat you not to accept the grace of God in vain. For He says, "At the acceptable time I have listened to you, and helped you on the day of salvation." Behold, now is the acceptable time; behold, now is the day of salvation. We put no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we commend ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, tumults, labors, watching, hunger; by purity, knowledge, forbearance, kindness, the Holy Spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold we live; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

(For the Third Sunday of Luke)

The Reading from the Holy Gospel according to St. Luke. (7:11-16)

At that time, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and many of His disciples and a great crowd went with Him. As He drew near to the gate of the city, behold, a man who had died was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a large crowd from the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, "Do not weep." And He came and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And Jesus said, "Young man, I say to you: arise." And the dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized them all; and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and "God has visited His people!"

BIRTHDAYS & ANNIVERSARIES

Happy Birthday

Oct. 6 Michaela Gonzalez
Oct. 8 Luke Scherer
Oct. 9 Shawn & Tiffany Hill
Oct. 11 Lorraine Hamaker
Oct. 12 Steven & Clarice Allen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

ST. IGNATIUS 20TH ANNIVERSARY UPDATE

Today is the final day for reservations and payments. Menu selection will take place on Sunday, October 13. Entrees are a choice of a boneless New York strip steak, baked salmon or pasta primavera. Children's meals will feature the all-time kids favorite of macaroni and cheese and chicken nuggets. If as an adult that is your favorite meal, you too may order that item. If you have any questions regarding the event, please contact Jill K. Benza at 480-388-0378. Final menu selections are due to the caterer October 14. Please be ready to make your menu choice and ask your guests which of our menu items they want.

CALL FOR PHOTOGRAPHY & AD SPACE

We are hoping to collect some photos from the past 20 years for the year book we are publishing. Please email Stephanie Haworth (stephanie.c.haworth@gmail.com) photos or bring them to church.

Please consider placing an ad in our year book and also ask for ads from local businesses that you frequent. They are often ready to jump at the chance to do this.

BUILDING PRAYER

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord, grant all our petitions that are for our unity, salvation and eternal life. Have mercy on Saint Ignatius and grant us the faith to rely on you for what we need. If it is your Holy will, grant all the funds and everything necessary for a proper Orthodox Church in Mesa for your glory and that of your Only-begotten Son, Our Sweetest Lord Jesus, and your Life-creating Spirit. Establish St. Ignatius firmly upon your Divine Word and grant us grateful hearts.

For Thou are a great God, always, now and ever and unto ages of ages. Amen.
